Traditionally good

Golosità dei Trulli after years of experience in the bakery sector, today it is a company specialized in the production of TARALLINI, traditional Apulian products, prepared only with genuine ingredients: 100% Italian wheat to rediscover the true scent of tarallo, extra virgin olive oil from Italian olive for crunchiness and goodness, Puglia IGT wine for a superior taste and a unique crispness.

The Apulian taralli of Golosità dei Trulli are small, round, crunchy on the outside and crumbly inside. Light, yeast-free products therefore easily digestible. Genuine, with a typical Apulian taste, flavored only with the fruits of our land.

Golosità dei Trulli bases all its production on tarallini

To give the best service to customers and final consumers, tarallino is packaged in various formats to meet all needs and become comfortable and usable on all occasions. With the family, in the backpack, ideal for a healthy and genuine snack, for an evening with friends or for a quick snack.

The quality of the craftsmanship

The taralli pasta is an ancient and unique recipe of its kind. It is obtained only from genuine ingredients: flour, wine, olive oil and salt. Processing times require care and a lot of attention, as the natural ingredients and the absence of any additives, elements typical of the Tarallini Golosità dei Trulli dough, require different resting and cooking times, also depending on the seasons in which they are produced.

The cooking is visually checked to obtain a tasty product, crunchy on the outside and crumbly inside. So with patience, love, tradition and the art of baking the artisanal Tarallino of Golosità dei Trulli is created and packaged.

LThe history of the Apulian tarallini of Alberobello

In the Apulian countryside the peasants used to mix flour, olive oil, wine and a pinch of salt to form small circles of dough, which were baked in a wood oven.

In this way the taralli were born. Their origin begins in 1400, when peasant families, finding themselves together, used to offer this food accompanied by good wine as a sign of friendship and cordiality, a ritual that has not changed over the years. In fact, even today, it is unthinkable not to find taralli in the Apulian houses ready to be offered to guests.
